be could effect their release. We yielded to his armness, zeal and persistence, and his plans were plausible, but treachery defeated him before his well-laid schemes were developed. Having nothing else on hand, Colonel Martin exsed a wish to organize a corps to burn New York City. He was allowed to do so, and a most daring attempt has been made to fire that city; but their seliance on Greck fire has proved a mis-fortune; it cannot be depended on as an agent in such work. I have no faith whatever in it, and no attempt shall hazeafter be made, under my directions, with any such maserials. I knew nothing whatever of the raid on St. Albans until after it transpired. Desiring to have a boat on whose captain and crew peliance could be placed, and on board of which arms could be sent to convenient points for arming such vessels as could be sezzed for operations on the lakes, I aided Dr. James T. Pates, of Kentneky, an old steamboat captain, in the, purchase of the steamer Georgian. She had scarcely been transferred, when the story went abroad that she had peen purchased and armed for the purpose of sinking Johnson's Island, and destroying the churches broken up on Sunday. contraband on board; but still the people were incredulous.
